"Thrilling... a wealth of virtuosity and abandon"

– THE NEW YORK TIMES

Apollo's Fire at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London

An International Baroque Orchestra at Home in Northeast Ohio and Chicago

Apollo's Fire has performed to standing ovations at Carnegie Hall, London's St. Martin-in-the-Fields, the BBC Proms, Madrid's Teatro Real, the Tanglewood, Aspen, and Ravinia festivals, and more. But what we love most is bringing world-class music to your doorstep – at over 20 venues this year!

Founding Artistic Director Jeannette Sorrell has been praised for her “wonderful vitality” (The New York Times). She and Apollo's Fire are dedicated to reviving the true spirit of baroque performances – not only with period instruments, but with the emotional impact the music was meant to convey.

Passion. PERIOD.

THE 2023-2024 SEASON

Dear Friends,

The Ancient Greeks knew that music has the power to move the emotions, heal the spirit, and help humans connect in a troubled world. From the splendor of Handel, to the vibrant rhythms of Spain and Latin America, to the joy of virtuosity in musical duels among friends... we hope you will share in our journey.

Join us for our 32nd season, and let's share the magic of live performance!

“Brimming with energy and imagination”

–BBC MUSIC MAGAZINE

“Apollo’s Fire brings down the house... How special that we can claim them here in Northeast Ohio as they bring a special kind of excitement, to baroque music.”

–CLEVELAND.COM

“Sorrell is a dynamo on stage... a force to be reckoned with.”

–SAN FRANCISCO CLASSICAL VOICE

“When you attend an Apollo’s Fire concert, you know you’re in for a party... a dazzling array of colors and dynamics.”

– CHICAGO CLASSICAL REVIEW

“Jeannette Sorrell and troupe always seem to offer a festival for the eye and ear — thoughtful thematic programs, all-out committed musicianship, and infectious exuberance.”

Splendour IN LONDON

Handel's Water Music
and Other Royal Festivities

A View of the Fireworks and Illuminations at his Grace the Duke of Richmond's Entertainment on the River Thames on 31 May 1749, 18th century, etching

Josefien Stoppelenburg & Ashlee Foreman, sopranos
Jacob Perry, tenor | with Apollo's Singers

Purcell and Handel gave artistic voice to the British royal family's most festive and poignant moments. Jeannette Sorrell leads a sumptuous orchestra in Handel's lively Water Music. The acclaimed Apollo's Singers and soloists join for Purcell's heartbreakingly beautiful Funeral Music for Queen Mary and sparkling selections from King Arthur. Handel's splendid Zadok the Priest, with a timpani procession, rounds out this festive program.

"Jeannette Sorrell leading Handel's Water Music proved a revelation... a lithe, robust performance that danced, springing forth with irrepressible energy. One could hardly imagine a more vital reading of this Handelian gem."

NIGHTS IN Venice

Erica Schuller, soprano | Daphna Mor, recorder

also featuring violinists Alan Choo, Emi Tanabe, and Edwin Huizinga

Nighttime in old Venice: music floating from cafés provided inspiration for composers from Claudio Monteverdi to Antonio Vivaldi. In our Venetian evening, dueling violinists set sparks flying in two Vivaldi double-concertos. Highlights from Monteverdi's L'Orfeo and the beloved Lamento della Ninfa remind us that love and betrayal often go hand in hand. The program culminates with a visit to the Jewish Ghetto of Venice – the scene of lively dances and the delightful Sephardic party-piece, Seven Ways to Cook Eggplant.

Wassail!

An Irish-Appalachian Christmas

Christmas night in Ireland, 1849: Families and friends gather for singing, storytelling, plenty of wassail, and tearful farewells – as many of them prepare to depart for America the next day.

This heartwarming program from Jeannette Sorrell follows the hopes and fears of the Irish who bravely crossed the Atlantic, bringing their music with them. Irish singer Fiona Gillespie joins with fiddlers, medieval harp, hammered dulcimer, and bagpipes in this communal celebration of the American immigrant experience – welcoming Christmas with LOVE, SINGING, DANCING, and PRAYER.
