

Job Posting: Student Ambassador & Marketing Assistant

Status: Hourly as needed - approx. 10-20 hours per month, October through April.

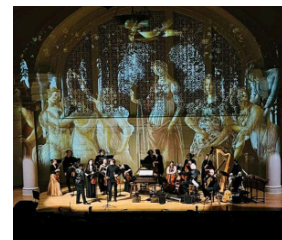

Description: Apollo's Fire Student Ambassadors will assist the Marketing Director and Box Office staff for the 2024-25 performance season. They will be responsible for poster and brochure distribution to a list of Cleveland businesses and will help provide an exceptional guest experience at Apollo's Fire Concerts. A successful candidate should be friendly, responsible, and able to provide their own form of transportation.

Duties:

- Serve as the main distribution person for posters and other marketing materials to a list (supplied by Apollo's Fire) of local businesses and organizations in Greater Cleveland. Poster distribution happens 1-2 weeks before each performance. Develop relationships with businesses to ensure prominent & timely display of AF's materials
- Promote Apollo's Fire on campus by hanging posters, delivering rack cards to faculty mailboxes, and raising awareness of Apollo's Fire's Free Student Rush Tickets for upcoming performances
- Assist with 1-2 concerts per concert weekend (7 weekends total), as needed. Responsibilities may include scanning tickets, greeting guests, selling merchandise, or other duties as assigned by the Marketing Director or Patron Services Manager. Concert schedule is available on our website.

Compensation: $16-18/hour, commensurate with experience

To apply, please send your resume and a brief email introducing yourself and stating why you would like to work for Apollo's Fire to nfehrman@apollosfire.org.

ABOUT APOLLO'S FIRE:

Named for the ancient god of music, healing and the sun, Apollo's Fire is a GRAMMY®-winning ensemble. The period-instrument orchestra, based in northeast Ohio, was founded in 1992 by award-winning harpsichordist and conductor Jeannette Sorrell. AF has been praised internationally for innovative programming and technical excellence, and presents around 50 events per year in Cuyahoga and Summit Counties.

Dedicated to the baroque ideal that music should evoke the various Affekts or passions in the listeners, Apollo's Fire brings to life the music of the past for audiences of today, with Passion. Period.
